| | • Your partner's information is different from yours.
| | • If possible, try to reach an agreement at the end of the conversation.
| | • Use at least 3 of the ideas below. |

TOURIST ATTRACTION?

You and your partner (candidate B) are part of a local committee which is to decide what to do with a paradise area of virginal coastal strip. You have conservationist ideas and want it to become a protected area, but your partner has different ideas. You start the conversation. You have some proposals:

| Nature reserve
| Guided tours (people would pay to visit it). Attractive for wealthy tourists
| Tourists prefer unspoilt nature to too many buildings
| A different approach to existing package holiday makers
| A golf course: too much water and already too many |
